BONITA BEACH

There are ten beach access points located along three miles of Hickory Boulevard with facilities at access points one and ten. The main feature of the area is the four-acre public beachfront park that features a boardwalk that crosses the sea-oat-dappled dunes. Pavilions, restrooms and showers are available.

TIGERTAIL PUBLIC BEACH MARCO ISLAND

This 31-acre beach is one of the most popular spots on Marco Island. It's the perfect spot to have fun and be a nature buff. The tidal pools are filled with fish and sea life, and what was an offshore sandbar only a few years ago is now Sand Dollar Island, a tiny barrier island. Swim out and search for treasures or take in some great bird watching. The park features boardwalks, a bathhouse, showers, restrooms, a playground and a butterfly garden.

SOUTH MARCO BEACH

If you are looking for a more secluded spot on Marco Island, you may want to head to South Marco Beach. A boardwalk leads to a one-acre beach lined with Sabal palms. There is a restroom by the parking lot, but that's the only amenity you'll find there.
